Line up four paper clips along the long edge of a piece of paper and fill in the rest of the length with pennies. Do the same for the short side of the paper using two paper clips. Write and solve a system of equations that representing the situation.

Try using three paper clips on the long edge of the paper. Write and solve the resulting equations by elimination.