THE VALUE OF LEARNING A NEW LANGUAGE
Language is more than a tool for communication. It is wrapped into culture, identity and our view of the world. Learning a new language can certainly ease your travel experiences, but as research has shown, it can also exercise your mind — improving cognitive skills, creativity and memory. Professionally, multilingualism can open doors for your career, and keep you invaluable in our global economy.

WHY CHOOSE SCE?
Professional development and personal enrichment courses from the School of Continuing Education come with the distinction and quality that the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee has to offer. UWM is Wisconsin’s premier public, urban university with a strong international reputation for excellence in education.

- Local industry experts with real-world knowledge and advice
- Opportunity to network with like-minded professionals
- Convenient downtown location
- Amenities, including course materials, meals and discounted parking

WORK TOWARD FLUENCY
With a multitude of Language programs at a variety of levels, you have the power to shape your education. Progress through core courses to master a new language, and finesse your delivery and comprehension with advanced electives. SCE offers a formal certificate program in Spanish – see pg. 8 for details.

Spanish Certificate Program
- Learn speaking, listening, writing and reading skills
- Gain useful conversation skills you can use in real-life situations and practice them in a stress-free learning environment
- Become familiar with Spanish and Latin American cultures
- Learn specific phrases and vocabulary for business, travel or social services

SEE 40+ CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS AT sce-certificates.uwm.edu.

CUSTOMIZED LANGUAGE PROGRAMS
We can bring SCE courses such as Chinese Business Culture or Spanish for Health Care Professionals straight to you, and design an onsite experience around your goals, objectives, industry and culture. Contact Rachelle Perotto at sce-customized@uwm.edu or 414-227-3243 for more information.
