The Fuss Over Much Ado about Nothing

Join Bruce Stark as he makes a fuss over Much Ado about Nothing. Enjoy the comedic, beguiling and witty romance of Beatrice and Benedick. Appreciate the tangled wooing, the complication of a fake death and the overcoming of villainous slander that Claudio and Hero must endure. And in doing so, explore how Shakespeare uses his masterful skills in comedies like Much Ado to bring about a neat and tidy conclusion without losing the sense of life’s open-ended complexity. As the Bard might suggest “Letting wonder seem familiar.”

PRESENTER

Bruce Stark, associate professor emeritus, taught undergraduates for more than 40 years in France, Israel, India and at UWM. He enjoys working with adults in Osher, as he did at Columbia, Cornell, Madison and in the Army.

Devil in the White City Motor Coach Tour in Chicago  NEW!
Join Osher Executive Director Kim Beck in exploring the compelling true story told by Erik Larson in his best-selling book, The Devil in the White City. The book spotlights two simultaneous events in Chicago history: the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893 and the emergence of serial murderer Dr. Henry H. Holmes. Our day in Chicago begins with a presentation at the Chicago Architecture Foundation, featuring period photographs of the Fair and its central characters. Next, a CAF docent leads a private coach tour to locations and buildings that fairgoers would have experienced. This diverse tour stops at the street that was home to Chicago’s business and social elite during the Fair, winds past the home of Fair critic Ida B. Wells, highlights the Midway and the site of the Ferris Wheel, and stops for a short walking tour of the fairgrounds in Jackson Park. Those who have read Erik Larson’s book will learn more about the circumstances surrounding the Fair and Dr. Holmes; those who haven’t will find this tour to be a fascinating introduction to the 1893 World’s Fair and the evil Dr. Holmes.

Sat., June 7, 8am-6pm
Location: Two pickup locations available – North Shore Park & Ride and College Avenue Park & Ride

Much Ado about Nothing at the American Players Theatre

Join us as we spend another wonderful summer day at the American Players Theatre. Enjoy a tasty picnic lunch and then take in an outdoor matinee (seating in the shade) performance of Shakespeare’s Much Ado about Nothing, the beguiling tale of fun-loving, confirmed bachelor Benedick and his foil, the headstrong Beatrice. With the couple always ready to do combat with a “merry war” of witty insults, you will discover why many believe that Much Ado about Nothing contains some of the most brilliant comedic repartee ever written.

Sat., Aug. 2, 10:45am-8:30pm
Location: Two pickup locations available – North Shore Park & Ride and State Fair Park & Ride
Fee: $85 Includes motor coach, ticket and picnic lunch
Program No. SUMR:60

The Art and Design of Kohler

Begin your day with a guided tour of the John Michael Kohler Art Center, which houses splendid contemporary art from around the globe, including a unique collection of works by artist-environment builders and local artists. Next, have lunch at the Horse & Plow restaurant inside the American Club resort, followed by a tour of the Kohler Design Center, showcasing Kohler’s innovative products throughout the history of the company. End the day with a tour of the Waelderhaus, a replica of the type of home the Kohler family’s ancestors had in Austria, featuring carvings, pewter and iron work.

Fri., Aug. 15, 8:30am-5:15pm
Location: Bus departs from the North Shore Park & Ride
Fee: $65 Includes lunch and motor coach

Master Class at Milwaukee Chamber Theatre
NEW!

Maria Callas, legendary opera diva, takes over the stage in Master Class, the Tony Award winning play by Terrence McNally. In teaching a course for opera singers, she gradually becomes drawn into examining her own life, revealing her passion and art through vivid memories and music. Get a behind-the-scenes look at the production with a talk by Artistic Director C. Michael Wright. Then watch the show in the Cabot Theatre - a site modeled after an 18th century European opera house.

Wed., Aug. 20, Noon-3pm
Location: Milwaukee Chamber Theatre, 158 N. Broadway, Milwaukee
Fee: $30

CREATE CHANGE CONFERENCE

An Invitation for Osher Members to Participate

UWM is hosting an exceptional conference this summer that explores how creative engagement can transform the care of older adults. Participants from across the country will attend to share their knowledge and experiences in this emerging area of research and practice. Conference organizers are extending a special invitation to Osher members to participate in two sessions. The first is a screening and discussion of the critically-acclaimed documentary on the Penelope Project. The film tells the story of how Homer’s Odyssey was used by long-term residents, artists, and students to explore the possibilities of using creativity and learning in coping with memory loss. The second session is a day-long workshop where Osher members can actively participate with other conference attendees in turning their stories into art.

Session 1: Penelope Film Screening and Discussion
Mon., June 23, 3-4:30 p.m.
Location: UWM School of Continuing Education
Fee: $5
Program No. CHNG:02

OR
