HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN POTPOURRI, OSHER LECTURE SERIES AND GO EXPLORE PROGRAMS

Become a Member
You must be a member of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UWM to register for programs. If you have not joined Osher or renewed your membership, you may do so online or by including the membership fee with the registration form on page 21. To verify your membership status, call the Osher office at 414-227-3255.

Registration
Once you have joined Osher, registration is required for Potpourri, Lecture Series and Go Explore program participation.

Registration Options
(1) Register online at sce-registration.uwm.edu.

(2) Mail in your registration to Noncredit Registration, UW-Milwaukee, Drawer No. 491, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, WI 53293-0491. Make checks payable to UWM.

(3) Call the School of Continuing Education (SCE) customer service at 414-227-3200 and use a credit card.

Please note there will be no in-person registration this Summer. In-person registration will be offered again this coming Fall.

Fees
Fees for programs vary. See page 22 for a comprehensive listing of programs and fees.

You can register for any course or program up to one week before the start date. However, classes fill up quickly, so we encourage you to register early.

If you have registered for a program and cannot attend, notify the Osher office at least two weeks before the start of the first class session and your money will be refunded. If we have to cancel a program, you will be notified and your money will be refunded.

For questions, please call Jenny Neale at 414-227-3255.
PROGRAM COMMITTEE

TRAVEL THE WORLD WITH UWM AND OSHER

What’s on your bucket list? Have you ever dreamed of seeing the remarkable architecture of London and Paris? How about experiencing magnificent scenery and wildlife while learning more about the unique political history of South Africa? Or perhaps a breathtaking sunset at Uluru and the brilliant ecological diversity of the Great Barrier Reef? Well, the UWM Alumni Association, the School of Continuing Education and Osher have teamed up to offer you the travel experiences of a lifetime with a very special UWM twist. Over the next two years, you will have the chance to travel to remarkable locations around the world on tours led by noted UWM faculty and staff.

There will also be opportunities to experience the Best of Broadway, tour the vibrant but hidden world of Cuba, or sail the Florida Keys aboard the Lake Schooner Dennis Sullivan. The best part is that you can count on UWM to provide you with worry-free travel experiences with just the right blend of educational and leisure activities. See the world, make new friends and have an educational travel experience you will never forget.

As a special benefit, Osher members will receive discounts on all UWM SCE/Alumni travel programs.

Each week, discover a different speaker and enjoy a different topic. Presenters are listed in order of their presentation.

June 11 – John Angelos will examine Shakespeare’s use and misuse of language in Hamlet: Words, Words, Words. He is a retired teacher who taught literature at the high school and university levels. His recent Osher courses include Modernist Women, The Dubliners and Ulysses.

June 18 – Leah Dobkin will explain how to create a Legacy Letter. She is a freelance writer and has contributed to Kiplingers, AARP, Milwaukee Magazine and other regional, national and International magazines. She is the author of the book Soul of a Port: The History and Evolution of the Port of Milwaukee. She received her master’s in gerontology and nonprofit management from Columbia University.

June 25 – Carolyn Sweers will examine the question of Why Be Moral. She holds a masters degree in philosophy from Boston University and has done extensive work toward a doctoral degree. She spent most of her teaching career at New Trier High School in Illinois. After an early retirement, she has spent the last ten years teaching older adults.

July 9 – Jeff Jordan will present an overview on the historic east side of Milwaukee. He is a veteran volunteer member of Historic Milwaukee Inc. He has given numerous walking tours of the Lake Drive mansions, Five Points, Brady St. and river tour aboard the Vista King.

July 16 – Sue Edman lectures on the City of Milwaukee Election Commission. Sue Edman is the Executive Director of the Milwaukee Election Commission. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

July 23 – Christine Miller will share her journey on the Ice Age National Scenic Trail. Last year, she hiked the entire course. The 1000+ mile foot trail crosses some of Wisconsin’s most scenic areas as it traces the southern edge of the glacial advance across our state.

July 30 – John Horgan will explore The Wizard of Oz as a parable on populism. He is a faculty member at Concordia University and teaches courses in Western and American civilization as well as the Non-Western World.
The Great Depression was a defining era for a generation of Americans. This riveting presentation will examine the natural resources and economic need for Roosevelt's Emergency Conservation Work Act, the living conditions and work performed by the CCC volunteers, and the rustic architecture in our parks that were developed during the CCC era.

Presenter: Mary Schueller has authored two books: Rustic Reflections of Copper Falls State Park, which contains the document that placed the park site on the National Register of Historic Places, and The Soldiers of Poverty, which tells the story of her father's service in the Civilian Conservation Corps. She edited and self-published My Life To My Children by Jack Vilas, the memoir of Wisconsin's pioneer of forest fire surveillance. Her passion is writing historical books and plays in order to tell our pioneer stories to the next generation.
A Tasty Tour of Wisconsin Original Cheeses

Tue., June 26, 1:30-3pm
Fee: $10
Location: UWM Hefter Conference Center
Program No. SUMR:12

Long recognized as America’s Dairyland, Wisconsin is currently undergoing a cheesemaking renaissance as the state’s heralded cheesemakers craft more artisan, farmstead and specialty cheeses than any other state in the nation. Jeanne Carpenter, author of Cheese Underground and founder of Wisconsin Cheese Originals, will lead a tasting of four different Wisconsin original cheeses by four different Wisconsin artisan cheesemakers. Hear the stories of what it takes to create an award-winning Wisconsin Original.

Presenter: Jeanne Carpenter is a cheese geek, but she didn’t start out that way. Raised on Velveeta on a family farm in Wisconsin, after college she worked as an award-winning journalist and spokesperson for the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture. In 2007, she started her own public relations company to promote artisan cheese, and in 2009, launched Wisconsin Cheese Originals, a member-based organization dedicated to discovering, tasting, and learning more about Wisconsin artisan cheeses through a myriad of events, including an annual Wisconsin Original Cheese Festival in November. She is the author of Cheese Underground, a popular blog giving cheese-starved readers everywhere the inside scoop on America’s Dairyland since 2006.
Yousef: Auschwitz Survivor

Tue., July 10, 1:30-3pm
Fee: $10
Location: UWM Hefter Conference Center
Program No. SUMR:14

Auschwitz-Birkenau became the killing centre where the largest numbers of European Jews were killed during the Holocaust. By mid 1942, mass gassing of Jews began at Auschwitz, where extermination was conducted on an industrial scale with some estimates running as high as three million people eventually killed through gassing, starvation and disease. James Boisvert dramatically portrays Joseph, a survivor of this death camp.

Presenter: James Boisvert recently retired after 35 years teaching in the public school systems of Indiana and Wisconsin. He taught elementary students for 30 years in Whitewater, Wisconsin. During his career in elementary education, he was listed regularly in "Who's Who of America's Teachers" and was honored twice as an excellent teacher by the Wisconsin Center for Academically Talented Youth.

The Tragedies and Triumphs of Eleanor Roosevelt

Tue., July 17, 1:30-3pm
Fee: $10
Location: UWM Hefter Conference Center
Program No. SUMR:16

Born into the opulent wealth of America’s “Golden Age” she would grow from the shy, homely orphan into confident, driven woman. Annealed by personal tragedy, she would emerge as a champion of civil rights, author, and stateswoman.

Presenter: Originally from Pennsylvania, Jessica Michna developed a love of American history at an early age, visiting the many Revolutionary and Civil War sites in the area. During her high school years she appeared in various theatrical productions and designed and constructed costumes. Jessica’s theatrical aspirations were put on hold while she raised a family of four daughters. She earned a degree in psychology from the UW and worked several years as a research and teaching assistant. After several years in the healthcare field Jessica decided to return to her two great loves, history and the theater.
Twelfth Night

Tue., July 24, 1:30-3pm
Fee: $10
Location: UWM Hefter Conference Center
Program No. SUMR:18

Here’s a great way to warm up for a Go Explore trip to the American Players Theatre on Saturday, July 28. Bruce Stark will explore this hilarious, romantic comedy. Learn about the characters, themes and unusual circumstances that make this show one of the Bard’s most enduring works.

Presenter: Bruce Stark, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor Emeritus from UWM. He taught for over 40 years in France, Israel, India and Milwaukee. He is always happy to share his love of the Bard.

Women’s Work and Spinning Tales

Tue., July 31, 1:30-3pm
Fee: $10
Location: UWM Hefter Conference Center
Program No. SUMR:20

Enjoy an interactive lecture/demonstration that looks at women's working roles, as well as the history of fiber preparation during the 19th century. Demonstrations of spinning with spindle and wheel give participants a hands-on experience of what it takes to produce a garment from sheep to shawl. Interwoven with historical information are folktales and narratives that illustrate spinning and other household tasks that were part of women's farm employment at the time.

Presenter: Robin Mello is an assistant professor of theatre and education, a storyteller, and a scholar whose research revolves around the evolution of gender roles and women's history. She is also a spinner and ethnographer who has collected stories about spinning and women's work in her narrative research. Currently, Mello teaches at UWM, where she is director of the K-12 Theatre.
Get out and get going! In addition to Potpourri and Lecture Series, Osher members can register for excursions to various locations of interest in the Milwaukee and surrounding area.

An Insider’s Look at the Golda Meir Library

Fri., June 15, 10am-1:30pm
Fee: $28 (includes lunch but not parking)
Location: UWM Golda Meir Library, 2311 East Hartford Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53211
Program No. SUMR:30

Get an in-depth look at UWM’s Golda Meir Library and surrounding university buildings. The presentation also includes an interactive opportunity to learn how to use the library’s many resources. Lunch at Sala da Pranzo will conclude the day’s activities. Enrollees will be contacted prior to the event and asked to choose an entrée from a selected menu. The size of the group is limited to 25 for this event.

Parking is available at the UWM Union parking structure for $1.25/hour. Only cash is accepted.

Discover the Chicago Botanic Garden

Thu., June 28, 8:30 am-5:30pm
Fee: $20 (lunch not included)
Location: Bus departs at 8:30am from the North Shore Park n Ride, located on the west side of Port Washington Road one block north of Silver Spring Road
Program No. SUMR:32

Chicago Botanic Garden is a 385-acre living plant museum situated on nine islands featuring 24 display gardens and surrounded by four natural habitats. It is one of the United States' most visited public gardens and a center for learning and scientific research. Each year 760,000 people visit the Garden. It has a membership of 50,000, the largest of any U.S. public garden. The Chicago Botanic Garden is only one of 10 public gardens accredited by the American Association of Museums, recognizing its living collection of 2.4 million plants. Lunch is available at the Gardens cafeteria. The size of the group is limited to 29 for this event.
Behind the Scenes at the Milwaukee County Zoo

Wed., July 11, 9:30am-12noon
Fee: $10 (parking and admission not included)
Location: 10001 West Bluemound Road, Milwaukee, WI 53226. Meet at the Guest Services Desk on the right as you enter the “Gathering Place”, the main entrance.

Program No. SUMR:34

The Milwaukee County Zoo is a serene home to more than 2,275 mammals, birds, fish, amphibians and reptiles with more than 330 species represented. It is recognized as one of the country’s finest zoological attractions. Learn more about how the keepers do what they do, and venture behind the scenes in and around animal exhibit areas and zookeeper work areas in selected areas of the Zoo. You are encouraged to bring a camera to capture your experience. Tours include walking and stair climbing to access the off-scene areas. The size of the group is limited to 50 for this event.

Come Aboard the Denis Sullivan

Fri., July 20, 10-11am
Fee: $5
Location: Discovery World at Pier Wisconsin, 500 N. Harbor Drive, Milwaukee, WI 53202. Meet at the dock.

Program No. SUMR:36

Come aboard and explore the deck of the world’s only recreation of a 19th century three-masted Great Lakes cargo schooner. Take a step back into the rich maritime history of the Great Lakes. As Wisconsin's flagship and a flagship for the United Nations Environment Program, the USCG certified Sailing School Vessel Denis Sullivan, is an educational sailing vessel connecting learners of all ages to the Great Lakes, oceans and our world of water through experiential learning and technology. It was completed in Milwaukee in 2000 by professional shipwrights and nearly 1,000 volunteers. Annually the S/V Denis Sullivan travels over 18,000 nautical miles a year from her summer home at Discovery World at Pier Wisconsin, along the east coast to her winter home in Southern Florida. The Denis Sullivan is not wheelchair accessible. There is no group size limit for this event.
A Walking Tour of Milwaukee’s Magnificent Architecture

Wed., July 25, 5:30-8pm
Fee: $10
Location: Meet at the School of Continuing Education 7th floor reception desk, 161 W. Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53203
Program No. SUMR:38

Spend an enjoyable summer evening exploring the magnificent architecture of downtown Milwaukee. Join Kim Beck in examining City Hall, the Mitchell and Mackie buildings, Iron Block, Wisconsin Gas Company, the three Northwest Mutual Company buildings, the Milwaukee Center, the Old Federal Building, and the Pfister Hotel. Walk along a commercial street virtually unchanged in over 125 years. Discover how Milwaukee came to be known as the Cream City. Experience remarkable examples of Richardsonian, Art Deco, Modern, Post-Modern architecture and more! The size of the group is limited to 20 for this event.

Twelfth Night at the American Players Theatre

Sat., July 28, 11am-8:30pm
Fee: $80 (includes theatre ticket and picnic lunch)
Location: Bus departs at 11:30am from the North Shore Park n Ride, located on the west side of Port Washington Road one block north of Silver Spring Road
Program No. SUMR:40

As one of the greatest comedies ever written, Shakespeare and APT deliver a performance of deep, satisfying laughter. All the key ingredients are here – romance, mistaken identities, women falling in love with men who turn out to be women – and it’s made all the more tantalizing by the rich characters. From the exquisitely courageous Viola to the beautiful and bereaved Olivia to the insufferable Malvolio, everyone is dealing with a sort of crisis. There is debauchery. There is singing. There is a fellow named Belch. Twelfth Night is both achingly funny and profoundly beautiful. An absolute must-see! The size of the group is limited to 29 for this event.
A Visit to the Oshkosh Public Museum and Paine Art Center & Gardens

Wed., Aug. 1, 8:45am-4:45pm
Fee: $60 (lunch included)
Location: Bus departs at 8:45am from the North Shore Park n Ride, located on the west side of Port Washington Road one block north of Silver Spring Road
Program No. SUMR:42

At one time, Oshkosh was known as the "Sawdust Capital of the World" with over 47 sawmills and 15 shingle mills. In 1870, Oshkosh had become the third-largest city in Wisconsin with a population of over 12,000. Join us on guided tours of two vestiges of those by-gone days.

The Oshkosh Public Museum once was the house of Edgar and Mary Jewell Sawyer House. The interior of the building was designed by the famous Tiffany Studios. The museum documents the arrival of immigrants from Eastern Europe into the region. The Paine Mansion was built for lumber baron Nathan Paine and his wife, Jessie Kimberly Paine. Construction of the Tudor Revival style mansion began in 1927 and the exterior was completed in 1930. All work was halted in 1932 with the advent of the Great Depression. The Paines returned to the project in 1946 and established a non-profit organization to own and manage the estate for public benefit. It finally opened to the public in 1948. The Paine estate features a historic house museum with art gallery, and is surrounded by extensive gardens. The house contains French Barbizon school and American paintings, sculptures, and decorative wood workings, Persian rugs, tapestries, and English and American silver and china. An exhibit featuring 48 masterworks by Ansel Adams will also be on display. You will be contacted prior to the event and asked to choose an entrée from a selected menu. The size of the group is limited to 29 for this event.
The Historic Wisconsin Club-Tour and Lunch

Thu., Aug. 9, 10:30am-1:30pm
Fee: $30 (lunch and parking at the club included)
Location: Wisconsin Club, 900 West Wisconsin Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53233
Program No. SUMR:44

In 1891 three Milwaukee businessmen held several meetings to organize the founding of a new social club. The purpose of the club was to promote and provide a venue for German-American understanding and fellowship. The first home of the new club, called the ‘Deutscher’ or ‘German’ Club, was in the Old Opera House near the site of the present Pabst Theatre. In early 1894 a fire broke out and severely damaged the clubrooms. A new home had to be found. Several alternatives were considered including disbanding the club which was in a poor financial state. When the vacant Mitchell Mansion on Grand Avenue (now Wisconsin Avenue) was brought to the attention of club members, shortly after the death of Alexander Mitchell, all thoughts of dissolution vanished. An offer of over $100,000 was made and accepted. The Deutscher Club moved into its new quarters in early 1895 and began to settle in for a long stay. Enrollees will be contacted prior to the event and asked to choose an entrée from a selected menu. The size of the group is limited to 40 for this event.

Urban Ecology Center

Wed., Aug. 15, 10-Noon
Fee: $10
Location: Urban Ecology Center, Riverside Park, 1500 E. Park Place, Milwaukee, WI 53211
Program No. SUMR:46

The Urban Ecology Center is a remarkable success story of vision and dedication. This neighborhood-based, environmental education, nonprofit community center has left an incredible mark on the urban landscape of Milwaukee. Join us for a tour of its unique “outdoor laboratory” including 15 acres of wooded land and riparian habitat on the east bank of the Milwaukee River, an imaginative, habitat-themed playground, and a lagoon, as well as the “green” building that houses main offices, resource areas and classrooms. The size of the group is limited to 25 for this event.

Open New Doors Conference
September 21, 2012
UWM School of Continuing Education

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute will be holding its next conference “Open New Doors” on September 21, 2012 at the UW-Milwaukee School of Continuing Education. Opportunities for older adults is the theme of this conference. Our vast life experience combined with a desire to be of service to the community can make a tremendous contribution to society. We will explore how to focus and engage our talent and energy. With an emphasis on leadership and community involvement, this day-long event will feature a morning keynote address by Sr. Edna Lonergan, President of the St. Ann Center for Intergenerational Care. Contact Kim Beck at kcb@uwm.edu or 414-227-3321 for more information.
