2004 Graduating Senior Survey Student Comments School of Information Studies

"Why" or "why not" responses to question "if you had to do it over again, would you choose to attend UWM?"	Student Comments regarding question "do you feel a sense of commitment to and involvement with UWM?"
I enjoyed my experience at UWM.	I wasn't involved in any activities.
UWM has a good IR program	I have become very active at UWM in a variety of organizations and programs
because here is where I found professors and counselors who worked with me and helped me to graduate	.
For the most part, I enjoyed my teachers and the overall experience at UWM	Just didn't
UWM's professors were willing to work with me during difficult times and I enjoyed the online classes.	I am very proud to be a UWM Graduate.
I was a student athlete and wanted to compete division 1	I felt like I was just a number
UWM Business School counselors and enrollement services were very hard to work with.	I did not enjoy my experience at UWM
UWM was one of the only local schools that had a major program I was interested it.	It seemed much more like a
It is in town.	I was involved with athletics and it really made me dislike a lot of things about UWM.
Convenience of online courses	don't live near campus
It was very convenient to take classes at UWM.	I don't feel UWM has much of a commitment to me!
The University seems monetarily oriented. I understand it is hard to maintain a personal relationship with over 26,000 students but at times it is frustrating. The thing I liked most about UWM is the opportunities it has created for myself and others.	Again, I do not hold very much personal attachment to the University or any of its entities.
Again, I do not hold very much personal attachment to the University or any of its entities.	I came here and gave you my money, should I be obligated to have a sense of commitment here
The courses were what I wanted but not numerous enough to offer enough different times.	I am a transfer student and didn't get too involved due to my study schedule.
