

2016 Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business Graduates

"If you had it to do all over again, would you choose UWM? Why or why not?"

Definitely

Great Program

It's a great school.

After going to school here for the past five years, I truly believe UWM and the Milwaukee area is the perfect fit for me. I wouldn't have wanted to spend my college days anywhere else.

Although it was a very bumpy road UWM, specifically the Lubar Advising Office, was very helpful and supportive of my pursuit of a Bachelor's degree.

Although this school was not my first choice, I enjoy the campus life here. I believe this school offers a lot more than it has been credited for. There are vast opportunities with a well diverse amount of students.

Amazing opportunities through Lubar School of Business

Because it gave me opportunities that I wouldn't have had at other schools. It has an extensive network and a dynamic atmosphere.

Because it is a good university in Wisconsin.

Because the tuition is affordable and it is a very diverse campus.

Big city, big experience

Cheap, close to home, same piece of paper as Madison.

Close to home, affordable, good business school.

G. Kevin Spellman is hands down the best professor and mentor I have ever had. I would choose to attend UWM all over again simply because of him.

Gave me a completely different look on life, met a lot of people that I will hold dear to me for the rest of my life.

Good atmosphere, great business program

Good environment, safe area (in my opinion). Enjoyed most of my professors. Etc.

I enjoyed studying at UW-Milwaukee

I enjoyed the overall experience I had here at UWM.

I enjoyed the teachers, the material, and most of all my classmates (many of whom have become good friends).
I had a great experience throughout my years here.
I had a great experience throughout the four years I attended UWM and Lubar School of Business.
I have grown to love Milwaukee and the school is excellent. The people here make the experience worth while.
I like the environment here. I enjoyed going to class every day and also interacting with the teachers every day.
I like the teaching facility and student service here a lot. I would like to continue study in UWM if there is another opportunity.

I love the business school
I love the campus and living in the city and lubar school of business is great
I love this city, the university, and the people I met here. Quite frankly, Dr. G Kevin Spellman alone made coming to UWM worth it. In the Investment Management Program, he put in countless hours to make sure we (his students) succeeded.
I loved the different culture that UWM had to offer and the size of the campus
I made professional relationships that have helped further my career in the business world.
I met some great people, had a lot of fun, and completed my degrees in the process.
I really enjoy the campus and the professors. I've had some really great professors that have helped make college a lot better. I enjoy the sense of community especially in Lubar. The facilities are very nice and I am glad my major is a part of such a great school.
I think this is a great school.
I transferred to UWM my freshman year, after attending UW- Whitewater for one semester. I am very glad that I did, I have met some amazing people, and the both the University and the city of Milwaukee has provided with opportunities that I do not believe I would have been able to find at other universities in the UW system as well as those outside of Wisconsin.
I value the education I have received at UWM. I found that all of my professors were extremely approachable and attentive and the price I paid for my education is much cheaper than the first university I had attended.
I was able to live at home and go to school while working. This helped me save money in the long term and I would do it all over again if I could.
I was born and raised in the area. I love the culture and the city of Milwaukee
I was from a small town in northern Wisconsin and UW Milwaukee was my way out.
I went to Harford University School, located right on campus and I always felt connected to the UWM campus.
I would choose to attend UW-Milwaukee again. Growing up in a small town. I wanted to go to a school that would take me out of my comfort zone. Milwaukee was the only college that I applied for. Living in the city for these few years has broadened my mindset.
Internship opportunities in the city
It attended up being the best school I can go to for my degree (Accounting). Also, It was the perfect distance from home and made it easy to get home (1 hr).
It has been an amazing experience with many opportunities.

It is a great school, I learned so much, and the teachers were extremely helpful.

Lot's of opportunities and connection with city.
Loved it loved the friends I made
Loved the school and a majority of the teachers here as well.
Loved the school and the area around it
Lubar has a great BBA program and the environment around campus is not like it is in a city at all. It's more homey.
Lubar's supply chain program is excellent. The close link between the school, students, and local businesses is tremendous.
Met some great friends and have a lot of fun over my 5 years here.
My experience was great
My whole family went to UWM as well as all of my friends.
Really good experience and environment. Alot of resources
So many opportunities in the business world in Milwaukee
Superb professors teaching in a safe environment has allowed me to raise my critical thinking skills and my ability to apply what I have learned to real-life world.
The accounting program has proven to be one of the best in the state of Wisconsin
The accounting program is strong
Many corporations are headquartered here
The advisement team really was the key to my success and helped me get to where I am now.
The business education here is superior to most. It help me land my full time career for after school.
The business program at UWM is great, and I feel that I would not have received the level of education that I have gained if I had gone through another program at a different school.
The Lubar School of Business is a top business school and I wanted the opportunity take part in it.
The overall experience in and out of class was good.
The professors who taught the night business courses are working or previous working professionals who intertwined real-world business strategies with class topics.
The school grew on me, living in an active community and city which was close to home.
The school of business at UWM is highly regarded and I thoroughly enjoyed going to school in the city of Milwaukee because of everything that the city and the school has to offer.
The support from the faculty was enormous. I also felt a connection with professors, as they would refer to me on a first name basis in and out of class. The accounting program at UWM is one of the best experiences I have encountered. I have attended two other universities, and if I could do it again I would choose to only study at UWM.

They gave me an opportunity to come here for school when other UW schools did not, and I am grateful for the opportunity and made the most out of it.
They have a really great accounting program and lots of opportunities for employment following the degree.
They made It easy to learn while also meeting my goal of graduating in 4 years
This school has allowed me to land my dream job and pursue many internships and part-time work opportunities in the city. Along with that, the IMCP has opened many doors that I did not expect, and allowed me to find happiness in equity capital markets.
This school opened many doors for me.
UWM allowed me to stand out in the classroom. It also connected me with Robert W. Baird who I will be working for full time upon my graduation.
UWM feels like home. The staff, the students, the environment is all so kind and welcoming. The professors were extremely knowledgeable. UWM just feels right.
UWM has a great business school with great professors that have the knowledge necessary to teach us.
UWM has a great business school. Coming from the perspective of the accounting program I feel like I'm fortunate enough to attend one of the toughest yet most rewarding accounting programs in the state. Furthermore, getting a job after graduating felt like a breeze. I applied, I interviewed, I got the exact job I wanted. I attribute that to this wonderful business school and amazing accounting program and the hard work I put into being apart of all of it.
UWM has an incredible accounting program and a lot of resources to assist students in finding internships/jobs post graduation.
Uwm has been flexible and has allowed me to explore several areas before getting my degree
UWM is a school in the largest city in Wisconsin. A hub for diversity and the arts. I was not a fan of school spirit (in terms of sports) or Greek life, and UWM has so much more to offer. I chose UWM because it is the back door to an artistic city with music venues and entertainment options. Although the city is large, it is 'reachable', meaning that as a student I have the power to get in touch with the CEO of just about any business if I tried. I couldn't do that in Chicago or LA. UWM does a really great job at bridging the gap between campus and community and it makes you feel at home then just a student, creating a way for students to build their professional lives through involvements on campus but create a future through involvements with the community. In that way, UWM offers something truly unique that I will cherish along with my degree that I couldn't find at another university.
UWM offers everything I wanted and needed in a university and city.
UWM was close to home and I felt like I learned a lot from all the teachers I had.
UWM was closer to home and I would not have spent so much money on living in dorms. Also, UWM has a lot to offer a student and is a good size campus.
UWM was one of my top three choices when I was a senior in high school. I went to UW Platteville for my first two years but I am very happy to be graduating from UWM with my degree in Human Resource Management. I was also very fortunate to receive the Lubar Scholarship.
Very close to home. Very close to events during the weekend. Great school.
Very strong and Well-known business school
Yes I would, the diversity of the education I have received and the people I have met in the process I believe will last a lifetime.
yes, a nice college, nice professors.
Yes. Had a very good experience.
Probably

Close to home
Good school
Love the city.
At first I was hesitant to attending UWM because I am from Milwaukee, but I am happy with my choice to stay here.
Because it is close to home and less expensive than other schools.
Because it's there.
because Milwaukee has a good business program
Business school has a well known program.
convenient and close. Also good degree program
Convenient to where I live and not extremely expensive.
Enjoyed the Math teachers
Even in seeing many other institutions around the country, I feel a deep sense of pride for UWM and all the opportunity it has afforded me.
Experience was what I thought it would be overall families live in the area
Good academic programs, highly diverse campus, a lot of different activities/clubs for any type of person
Good Business School- need a lot of work in the finance department.
good location, good environment
Great experience here.
Great school with lots of great companies around
Great university that is close to home. Urban atmosphere. Lots of great opportunities provided by UWM.
I am from Florida so staying there sounds like a better choice, but I do not regret coming to UWM.
I ended up liking the city more than I thought. I also met people that provided opportunities that I would not have had if I went to school somewhere else.
I enjoyed most of my professors and classes, but I could do without all the crime and violence that surrounds the campus. It gets old walking home looking over your shoulder overnight.
I enjoyed my time spent at UWM and I know I learned a lot, especially about myself, but I am from Milwaukee, so I would like to explore and learn somewhere else too!
I enjoyed the academic environment and most of the class that I attended while at UWM, however transferring from another university was not the easiest process.
I enjoyed the accounting program and the commitment to the students to help them be successful.
I enjoyed the ITM program.
I enjoyed the people that I met and the things I learned throughout the years.
i enjoyed the school and the professors
I feel like the professors at UWM are very interested in helping you learn if you show the desire to learn.
I found my program to be very rewarding and the fact it is well recognized would make me want to come back.
I got a very good education at a good school while getting to stay home in Milwaukee
I had a good experience
I have had a really good experience here friend-wise, but school-wise I would prefer to go to a more traditional university with a closer community and football team.
I just feel like there are so many more beautiful campuses in other states that I didn't look into. I'm happy I was here, but there is a little doubt in my mind.

I like living in the city for a change but I missed being home in Green Bay
I like the city and business school
I like the opportunity that Milwaukee offers, I don't like that I am far from home.
I like uwm
I liked the overall experience I had at UWM. I learned a lot in terms of my education and about myself.
I love how diverse UWM is. I just wish there was more school spirit or involvement.
I love the city and all there is to do; but the crime rate here is something that has turned me off to this campus and city.
I love the city aspect.
I really liked UWM especially its size. Felt big, but not too big.
I really liked UWM. I may have taken different professors, or changed my schedule, but overall I enjoyed my time.
I think it was a good fit for me overall, but in a few instances, I was disappointed with professors who were hard to comprehend or had difficult teaching styles to learn from.
I value the experience I gained at UWM and the memories I made. I don't believe I would trade them.
I wanted to graduate from Whitewater but I moved home to be with my Father.
I went somewhere else, didn't like the city, came here and had a great experience. I am an advocate of UWM to anyone thinking of coming here. That being said, the atmosphere and academics sometimes left something to be desired.
I would choose UWM again because of the amazing business school, and fun/social environment that it provides as a college student.
I would have liked to go further away from home.
I would have earned a few credits at a smaller school to save money and prepare myself for college life
I would have liked to go further away from home.
I've loved my time at UWM. But I do believe that the school should offer something to students who are out of state and who have attended the school for more than 3 years.
Interesting and experienced professors
It is a great school
It is close to home, and has a respected and broad business program
It was a public school, and close to my family and fiance. I could create work-friendly schedules with UWM's night classes which was great.
It was close to home
It was close to home, which I enjoyed
It's a good school. Would be nice if there were more graduate programs to choose from (e.g. Law School).
It's close to my hometown.
Its a great campus environment like the culture, school focuses more on the education and not on the sports teams location was good and I liked the courses that they offered.
