

Worksheet #2

Essential Learning Outcomes	Department Outcomes	Curricular Location	Assessment Strategies
Knowledge of Human Cultures and the Physical and Natural World  Through study in the sciences and mathematics, social sciences, humanities, histories, languages, and the arts
Intellectual and Practical Skills, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Inquiry and analysis</li> <li>• Critical and creative thinking</li> <li>• Written and oral communication</li> <li>• Quantitative literacy</li> <li>• Information literacy</li> <li>• Teamwork and problem solving</li> </ul> Practiced extensively, across the curriculum, in the context of progressively more challenging problems, projects, and standards for performance
Personal and Social Responsibility, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Civic knowledge and engagement—local and global</li> <li>• Intercultural knowledge and competence</li> <li>• Ethical reasoning and action</li> <li>• Foundations and skills for lifelong learning</li> </ul> Anchored through active involvement with diverse communities and real-world challenges
Integrative Learning, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Synthesis and advanced accomplishment across general and specialized studies</li> </ul>			