

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Alumni Association Award for Teaching Excellence 2008-09

The UWMAA Award for Teaching Excellence: The recipient must be an outstanding member of the tenured or tenure-track UWM faculty or teaching academic staff who has distinguished him/herself in career or civic involvement. The nominee must currently be teaching at UWM. An award is presented to the recipient at the UWM Alumni Association Recognition Reception. One award is presented annually.

Nomination process:

1. Nomination on the appropriate form (on reverse of this page), or a letter of recommendation, will be accepted from an alum of UWM or a UWM faculty member.
2. To assist the UWMAA Honors Committee in evaluating the nominee, the nomination should be accompanied by supporting letters, the candidate's resume or vita, community activities, honors received, summary of published works, and other pertinent data. Copies of related newspaper clippings or magazine articles are welcome; photocopies of this material are acceptable.
3. Information about the nominee's teaching schedule for the last two years, including the number of courses taught and the number of students advised, should be provided.
4. Submit fifteen copies of nomination materials.
5. All nomination material must be submitted by July 1, 2008.
6. The UWMAA Honors Committee will review all nominations and recommend recipients to the UWMAA Board of Trustees.
7. Nominations are kept active for two years.
