

Korea Day

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN - MILWAUKEE

Korean Maps of the 19th Century: The Korean National Treasure Daedong yeojido at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee

On twenty-two folded sheets, the Daedong yeojido measures nearly thirteen feet wide and twenty feet in length when displayed open.

American Geographical Society Library
UWM Libraries, 3rd Floor East
2311 East Hartford Ave.
Milwaukee, WI

For information or to arrange for special needs, Call 414-229-6282. All programs are free and open to the public. Coffee will be provided throughout the day; Refreshments will be provided following the afternoon lecture.

Morning Session

9:30 – 12:00 PM (AGSL)

Opening and Welcoming Remarks

Introduction of the AGS Library and the Daedong yeojido at UWM

Christopher Baruth (Curator, AGSL, UWM)

Angie Cope (Senior Academic Librarian, AGSL, UWM)

Presentations

“Cartography of the Daedong yeojido and its Origins”

Kihuk Kim (Pusan National University)

“Characteristics of Korean Old Maps: An interpretation of mountains and mountain ranges from the perspective of a history of civilization”

Kibong Lee (National Library of Korea)

“On the Philosophical Significance of Kim Jeongho's Daedong yeojido”

Suk-Soo Kim and Halla Kim (University of Nebraska at Omaha).

Discussant: Woonsup Choi (Geography, UWM)

Lunch

12:00 – 1:30 PM (Greene Hall)

Complimentary lunch featuring Korean cuisine and traditional cultural activities

Afternoon Session

1:30 – 3:00 PM (AGSL)

Special Lecture: “The Life and Work of Kim Jeongho before the Daedong yeojido of 1861”

Gari Ledyard (King Sejong Professor Emeritus of Korean Studies, Columbia University)

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 20, 2009

Sponsored by

School of Information Studies, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee (SOIS-UWM)

UWM Libraries

American Geographical Society Library

Korean American University Professors Association (KAUPA)

Map Society of Wisconsin

Center for International Education (CIE-UWM)

Consulate General of the Republic of Korea