

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
College of Nursing
Black & Gold Committee
Minutes of December 8, 2003 Meeting

- Call to order: Present at the meeting were: Deatra Holloway, Julie Sowinski, Larry Hoth, Lisa Mihlbauer, Ken Lyman, Eric Goin, Jennifer Gammeter, Liz Kozub, Michelle Simpson, Katie Klinke, Kimberly Vial,
- Excused: Dr. Sue Dean-Baar, Dr. Catherine Lageson, Faye Enriquez, Jennifer Daood, Brad Staehler, Rose Billingsley,

Discussed College of Nursing student survey that was distributed to classes and returned. Results will be available at the next Black & Gold Committee meeting in February.

Discussed and made recommendation for changes to Black & Gold Committee Web-site.

- Students asked that their e-mail addresses be removed from the membership list.
- Task force on CON black & gold mission statement presented the guidelines that they had come up with. Discussion amongst the committee about the guideline statements. The first statements of the guidelines was deleted, with the remaining 3 to comprise the guidelines, and go up on the web-site.
- Issue of the Month created by : Deatra Holloway, Rose Billingsley, Julie Sowinski was presented by Deatra Holloway and Julie Sowinski. It will be added to the web-site as the first 'Issue of the Month'.
- Discussion on how to make sure that students are aware of the Black & Gold web-site. Liz Kozub to check into creating and placing notices in elevators. Additional ideas for increasing student awareness was presented.

Eric Goin expressed concerns that some students presented to him. Will follow-up and report back to the committee in February.

Ken Lyman will be making contact with campus nutrition services to identify whether healthier food might be available to students on the first floor. He will report back on what he finds out at the February meeting.

Report on campus black & gold committee meeting was held until the next meeting in February.

Next meeting to be held after Winterim in February.
Respectfully submitted: Julia Snethen