Kids and teens have summer fun at UWM

WHEN/WHAT/WHO: Fri., Aug. 1, is a good time this summer to get a glimpse of the many bright faces at College for Kids (CFK) and College for Teens (CFT) at UWM’s Kenwood campus. For over 30 years, the popular program has drawn inquisitive students seeking hands-on learning opportunities taught by top tier instructors from the university as well as metro area schools. More than 800 children and teens have enrolled in over 200 classes this summer. Over the years, more than 25,000 students have participated in exciting hands-on learning experiences in math, science, languages, computers, fine arts and humanities.

VISUALLY APPEALING SELECTIONS: To view our complete schedule, visit www.sce-kids.uwm.edu. Among our top picks for the day are Blueprints to Buildings, gr. 3-5, or 6-8; Advanced Chemistry, gr. 3-5 or 6-8; Organ Investigators, gr. K5-2; Creative Cake Design, gr. 3-5 or 6-8; Kids on Canvas, gr. 3-5 or 6-8; Stellar Heroes and Monsters, gr. 3-5; Lego Mindstorms II, gr. 3-5 or 6-8; Pottery, gr. PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEOGRAPHY OPTIONS: After noting the class(es) you would like to visit, please contact College for Kids at cfkids@uwm.edu or at 414-229-6364. The CFK/CFT staff can then assist you with room numbers and procedures.

About the School of Continuing Education: As one of 14 schools and colleges that comprise the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, SCE offers participants an assortment of over 1,500 programs and 600 practitioner instructors. With nearly 20,000 participants each year, SCE is the largest provider of noncredit continuing education in southeastern Wisconsin. Its mission is to generate knowledge and learning opportunities for those interested in developing professional skills in business, technology and human services, enriching their lives with classes in arts and humanities or for those who are simply looking for a new intellectual challenge.
