NEW Youth & Child Care Training – noncredit and credit tracks available!

Whether you work with young children or school-age students, you are instrumental in these developing lives. Be sure that you have the skills to prepare your students to reach new milestones and conquer the world! Two new program tracks are available this fall — a noncredit and credit path, online and traditional classroom formats. Learn more below and choose the options that best suit your training needs.

NON-CREDIT COURSES

Introduction to Child Care – SCHOOL AGE
This is an introductory course for school age workers who are new to the field of school age (ages 5-12 years) and afterschool care. Enables participants to begin working effectively with youth ages 5 to 12. To receive Registry certificate, all course assignments must be completed within the course time line. Course is a DCF Approved school-age only equivalent to Introduction to the Child Care Profession. Participants enrolled in the non-credit section of the course complete fewer readings, discussion posts, and assignments than students in the credit section. Non-credit participants and credit students are placed in separate on-line course sections.

- Sept. 10-Nov.3
- Instructor: Cheryl Baldwin, Ph.D.
- Fee: Special introductory rate: $180.00

Child Care Programming – SCHOOL AGE
Study child care programming for school-age children (ages 5-12 years) as it relates to the child’s social milieu: family, community and child care center. Comparatively examine child care programs and their supporting theories. To receive Registry certificate, all course assignments must be completed within the course time line. Course is a DCF Approved school-age only equivalent to Skills and Strategies for the Child Care Teacher. Participants enrolled in the non-credit section of the course complete fewer readings, discussion posts, and assignments than students in the credit section. Non-credit participants and credit students are placed in separate on-line course sections.
