This course is an introduction to the Irish language, a member of the Celtic family of languages. Irish Gaelic or Gaeilge is the first official language of Ireland and is the primary language in some parts of Ireland. Students will learn to converse about their daily routine, work, pastimes, neighborhood and holidays. Taught with an emphasis on both pronunciation and basic grammatical structures, this course aims to provide students with a good understanding of basic Gaeilge through aural, oral and written work.
