Recommendation of the Codification Committee to approve A2.5 - Supplement to Chapter 6, UWM Policies & Procedures.

A2.5 Human Rights Committee

1. Membership. Eleven voting members as follows: three elected faculty members, three appointed faculty members, two members of the Academic Staff, one appointed member of the non-represented classified staff, and two students. A representative of the Chancellor responsible for Human Rights matters will serve ex-officio.

2. Functions.

a) Considers alleged violations of human rights, including unfair discrimination based on race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or any other reason. Reports its findings, conclusions and recommendations to any or all of the following: the University Faculty, the Faculty Senate, the University Administration, and/or other groups or individuals.

b) Advises the University Administration concerning administrative policies related to human rights of members of the University community and to maintain liaison with other University committees on these issues. Makes policy recommendations, to any or all of the following: the University Administration, the University Faculty, the Faculty Senate, and/or other groups or individuals.

c) Assists and advises in the development of policies, programs, and activities designed to assure equal employment and equal educational opportunities for all, and any other matters relating to human rights within its jurisdiction.

1976-77 Codification Committee
Willis Hagen (Chairman)
A. Clarke Hagensick
Robert Ingle
Leone Kaylor
David Luce
Ted McLaughlin
John J. Solon (ex-officio)