1977-78 Annual Report of the Human Rights Committee

The Human Rights Committee met eight times from September to March during the 1977-78 academic year. The following activities were engaged in:

1. Two grievances were discussed.

2. The Committee met with a representative of the UWM Gay community. Subsequently, a recommendation for a statement of non-discrimination on the basis of sexual preference was submitted to the Faculty Senate.

3. The committee discussed procedures for handling grievances and procedures which should be undertaken by a complainant before coming to the committee.

4. The committee has begun to discuss the degree to which it should assume the functions of the Standing Committee cited in Recommendation 1 of the Title IX Task Force. These discussions will be continued during the remainder of the academic year.
