Recommendation of the University Committee to amend Chapter 1.01, UWM Policies and Procedures.

1.01 Definition of Faculty and Voting Rights

(1) (b) The foregoing does not deny University Faculty status to any person holding same previous to July 1, 1964. By action of the faculty senate and the Chancellor, members of the academic staff may be designated as having faculty status. Faculty status means the right to participate in faculty governance of the University. Faculty status does not confer rank or tenure, or convert an academic staff appointment into a faculty appointment.

RATIONALE: Faculty status and voting rights permit participation in matters of faculty governance and educational policy; therefore, said designation is limited by these amendments to those members of the academic staff whose responsibilities and interests are comparable to ranked faculty and whose association with the University is likely to be long term.

Current policy permits academic staff to receive voting rights at the university level, whether or not they have such rights at the school or college and departmental level.
Since designation of faculty rank and resultant voting rights for faculty are initiated at the departmental level, the proposed amendment provides that designation of voting rights for academic staff also are initiated at the departmental level.

Comparable legislation amending Chapters 2.02 and 5.02, UWM Policies and Procedures was passed by the Faculty Senate at its April 22, 1982 meeting.

Faculty status means the right to participate in the faculty governance of the University.
