Recommendation of the University Committee to amend Chapters 6.24(3) and 6.24(6), UWM Policies and Procedures.

6.24 Faculty Standing Committee Membership

(3) Appointments.

OLD
Following an election the Chancellor fills appointive positions on faculty standing committees.

NEW
Following an election, unless otherwise specified, the Chancellor fills appointive faculty positions on Faculty Standing committees from names submitted by the Nominations Committee. At least two (2) nominees must be submitted for each vacant position.

RATIONALE: The source of the nominees for the Chancellor's appointments is not specified in the current version.

6.24 Faculty Standing Committee Membership

(6) Vacancies.

A vacancy in an elective committee position is filled by the available candidate who had the highest number of votes. The person so designated shall serve until the first week of the next academic year. If the term of office extends beyond the current academic year, an election for the unexpired term is held at the next regular election. A vacancy in an appointive committee position is filled by the person or group authorized to make the initial appointment.

6.24 Faculty Standing Committee Membership

(6) Vacancies.

A vacancy in an elective committee position is filled by the available candidate who had the highest number of votes. The person so designated shall serve up to the first contractual day of the next academic year. If the term of office extends beyond the current academic year, an election for the unexpired term is held at the next regular election. A vacancy in an appointive committee position is filled by the person or group authorized to make the initial appointment. In the case of appointive faculty positions, the Chancellor will select appointees from names submitted by the University Committee. At least two (2) nominees must be submitted for each vacant position.
RATIONALE: To be consistent with 6.24(4) and 6.24(3), the above changes appear to be necessary.
