1.06 Membership and Structure of the Faculty Senate

(4) Should the elections result in having no candidate from a college or school among the forty candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, then the candidate from that college or school with the greatest number of votes shall be deemed elected for a one-year term as an additional member authorized by 1.06(1). Should the election result in having fewer than two candidates who are assistant professors or instructors among the winning candidates from each of the various faculty divisions of the University, then the two assistant professors or instructors from that faculty division with the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed elected for a one-year term as additional members authorized by 1.06(1).

(4) Should the elections result in the Senate having no member from a college or school, then the candidate from that college or school who received the greatest number of votes shall be deemed elected for a one-year term as an additional member authorized by 1.06(1). Should the election result in the Senate having fewer than two members who are assistant professors or instructors from each of the various faculty divisions of the University, then the one or two assistant professors or instructors ......

2.06 The Graduate School: Faculty, Council and Committees

OLD (2)(b) The Graduate Faculty Council elects its chairman for a one-year term from its faculty members. A chairman may not serve more than two consecutive one-year terms.

NEW (2)(b) The Graduate Faculty Council elects its chair and vice-chair for a one-year term from its faculty members. A chair may not serve more than two consecutive one-year terms.

6.24 Faculty Standing Committee Membership

(4) Except as otherwise provided, the terms of office for all elective and appointive positions on standing committees are for three years on a staggered basis. Except as otherwise provided, terms of office for elected and appointed committee members begin the first week of the next academic year.

NEW (4) Except as otherwise provided, the terms of office for all elective and appointive positions on standing committees are for three years on a staggered basis. Except as otherwise provided, terms of office for elected and appointed committee members begin on the first contractual day of the next academic year.

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE

Lawrence Baldassaro, Chair          David Luce
Fred Berman                          Oliver Myers
James Cronin                        Suzanne Waller
Phyllis Kritek

Editorially reviewed by the Codification Committee employing the criteria of clarity, internal consistency, and relation to other policies and procedures governing UWM. This review does not constitute endorsement.