I. The Committee approved the following programs in the 1960-61 academic year:

B. F. Skinner, Professor, Harvard University
Subject: "Teaching Machines"
Date: October 5, 1960
Honorarium: $200
Publicity: $15
Sponsoring Departments: Psychology, School of Education
Estimated Attendance: 700

James Avery Joyce, International lawyer, economist, author
Subject: "Converging Forces in the United Nations"
Date: October 10, 1960
Honorarium: $60
Sponsoring Departments: Economics, History
Estimated Attendance: 150

Charles Dadeyan, Professor and Director of the Institute of Modern Comparative Literature, Sorbonne
Subject: "L'Evolution d'Albert Camus"
Date: November 10, 1960
Honorarium: $50
Publicity: $15
Sponsoring Departments: French and Italian, English
Estimated Attendance: 150

George Walter, Associate Professor of Education, Lawrence College
Subject: "Pegasus Prancing"
Date: November 16, 1960
Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: Campus School, Secondary Education
Estimated Attendance: 87

Percy Greaves, Research Economist, economic consultant, author
Subject: "Monetary Aspects of the Economic Outlook"
Date: November 16, 1960
No honorarium
Sponsoring Departments: Commerce, Economics, Engineering
Estimated Attendance: 100

Amiya Chakravarty, Professor of Comparative Oriental Religions and Literature
Boston University, former Advisor to Indian delegation, United Nations
Subject: "The Role of the Neutrals in the Present World Crisis"
Date: November 29, 1960
Honorarium: $150
Sponsoring Departments: Political Science, History, Institute for World Affairs, Education, Sociology and Anthropology
Estimated Attendance: 200

Katharine Kuh, Curator of American Painting, Chicago Art Institute
Subject: "Can Modern Art Survive Its Friends"
Date: December 12, 1960
Honorarium: $200
Sponsoring Departments: Art and Art Education, English
Estimated Attendance: 450

Joseph Goodman, American composer
Subject: "The Composer and Contemporary American Society"
Date: January 9, 1961
Honorarium: $75
Sponsoring Departments: Music, Art and Art Education
Estimated Attendance: 125
Alma Eikerman, Indiana University
Subject: "Scythian Art in Russian Museums"
Date: March 3, 1961 Honorarium: $120
Sponsoring Departments: Art and Art Education, Anthropology, History
Estimated Attendance: 100

Pierre Viala, French actor
Subject: "De La Fontaine a Prevert"
Date: March 3, 1961 Honorarium: $25
Sponsoring Departments: French and Italian, English
Estimated Attendance: 80

Werner F. Leopold, Professor of German and Linguistics, Northwestern University
Subject: "Learning a Language"
Date: March 10, 1961 Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: German, Spanish
Estimated Attendance: 70

Walter Starkie, Professor of Spanish and Italian literature, University of Dublin
Subjects: "The Irish Theatre" and "Goya and Spanish Music"
Dates: March 10 and 11, 1961 Honorarium: $250
Sponsoring Departments: Spanish and Portuguese, English, Speech
Estimated Attendance: 75

Nadine Gordimer, Author of six books dealing with problems in South Africa
Subject: "The Nation and the Novel in South Africa"
Date: March 15, 1961 Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: English, Journalism
Estimated Attendance: 200

Donald Meiklejohn, Associate Professor of Philosophy, University of Chicago
Subject: "Academic Liberalism in the 1960's"
Date: March 15, 1961 Honorarium: $150
Sponsoring Departments: Speech, Secondary Education, English
Estimated Attendance: 100

Ernest Lefever, Research Associate, Washington Center of Foreign Policy, Johns Hopkins University, author of Ethics and United States Foreign Policy
Subject: "Ethics and Foreign Policy"
Date: March 20, 1961 Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: Political Science, Institute for World Affairs Education
Estimated Attendance: 250

Robert Lumiansky, Provost, Tulane University
Subject: "Originality in Malory's Morte D'Arthur"
Date: March 21, 1961 Honorarium: $200
Sponsoring Departments: English, Spanish and Portuguese, French and Italian, History
Estimated Attendance: 150

Paul C. Rosenbloom, Professor of Mathematics, University of Minnesota
Subjects: "Mathematical Education as a Field for Research" and "Probability and Entire Functions"
Date: March 22, 1961 Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: Mathematics, Physics, Secondary Education
Estimated Attendance: 125 and 75
Buddhadeva Bose, Head, Department of Comparative Literature, Jadavpur University, Calcutta, Visiting Professor of Comparative Literature, New York University
Subject: "The Development of Western Literature and Indian Literature: A Comparison"
Date: March 24, 1961 Honorarium: $90
Sponsoring Departments: English, Political Science
Estimated Attendance: 30

Millicent C. McIntosh, President, Barnard College
Subject: "Educating Our Daughters--for What?"
Date: April 13, 1961 No Honorarium
Sponsoring Department: School of Education
Estimated Attendance: 400

Willi Apel, Professor of Music, Indiana University
Subject: "The Central Problem of Gregorian Chant"
Date: April 14, 1961 Honorarium: $95
Sponsoring Departments: Music, History
Estimated Attendance: 350

Roger Salomon, Research Fellow, Yale University
Subject: "Attitudes toward the Past: Twain, Howells, James"
Date: April 15, 1961 Honorarium: $200
Sponsoring Departments: English, French and Italian
Estimated Attendance: 75

Roger Barr, Chairman, Art Department, American Students' and Artists' Center, Paris
Subject: "Ecole de Paris"
Date: April 17, 1961 Honorarium: $100
Sponsoring Departments: Art and Art Education, French and Italian
Estimated Attendance: 200

Wayne Hazen, Professor of Physics, University of Michigan
Subject: "Interaction of High Speed Particles with Matter" and "Nature and Origin of Cosmic Rays"
Date: April 21, 1961 Honorarium: $75
Sponsoring Departments: Physics, Mathematics
Estimated Attendance: 90 and 60

Aksel Schiotz, Danish Concert Baritone, Professor, Royal Conservatory, Toronto
Subject: "A Comparison of German and Danish Lieder"
Date: April 24, 1961 Honorarium: $200
Sponsoring Departments: Music, German
Estimated Attendance: 250

Jean Gottman, Research Professor of Geography, University of Paris
Subject: "Megalopolis"
Date: May 4, 1961 Honorarium: $200
Sponsoring Departments: Geography, Economics
Estimated Attendance:

II. The following is a list of UW--M departments which sponsored programs through the UW--M Lectures Committee this year.

Art and Art Education
Campus School
Division of Commerce
Division of Engineering
Economics

Mathematics
Music
Physics
Political Science

-19-
II. (Continued)

English
French and Italian
Geography
German
History
Institute for World Affairs
Education
Psychology
School of Education
Secondary Education
Sociology and Anthropology
Spanish and Portuguese
Speech

UW--M LECTURES COMMITTEE:

J. Anthony
J. Brundage
L. Hillis
E. Jepson
W. Matson
A. Suppan, Chairman
F. Voigt, Secretary