1987-88 ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACADEMIC POLICY COMMITTEE

The Committee took the following actions during the academic year:

1) Proposed, for consideration by the Faculty Senate, that all future academic calendars include a one day study period after the last day of classes and before final exams.

2) Proposed, for consideration by the Faculty Senate, an academic calendar for 1989-90.

3) Considered a proposal on academic misconduct procedures for proficiency and placement testing. A proposal with changes recommended by the APC was forwarded to the University Committee.

4) Considered (and informally supported) a University Committee proposal to grant voting representation to two Academic Staff members of the APC.
