2. American Sign Language courses taught for credit in the high schools can be counted as a high school foreign language. Motion passed 3/2/90.

3. Transfer Policy - Board of Regents. Motion passed 3/2/90. Passed. Students can be granted 15 general education credits for associate degrees earned after December 31, 1989. Students earning associate degrees before that date can appeal to the dean of the college through the director of admissions office for a review of their records.

In addition, there was a lengthy discussion on some of the implications of the transfer policy of the Board of Regents as well as some implications for the College of Letters and Science in terms of individuals who may be asking for credits from the American Language Sign language as a foreign language.
