Recommendation by the College of Letters and Science and the Academic Program & Curriculum Committee.

MOTION:

To change the name of the major and minor in the Department of Africology from Afro-American Studies to Africology.

RATIONALE:

The name change of the department of the Department of Afro-American Studies to the Department of Africology was approved by UW System on April 21, 1994. The names of the major and minor are to be changed to Africology to reflect the new department title.
