Annual Report of the Academic Policy Committee

The Academic Policy Committee met regularly and discussed and acted on the following academic policies:

- approved and sent to the Faculty Senate the 1996-1997 Academic Calendar. The Calendar was approved by the Senate.

- at the request of the Faculty Senate, discussed the proposal to increase class periods ten minutes. The proposal was not acted upon because it is not feasible with the current registration computer software.

- discussed, revised and forwarded to the University Committee teaching evaluation procedures. These were presented to the Faculty Senate which met as a committee of the whole.

- approved a policy for administrative drops and referred it to the Faculty Senate. The policy for administrative drops was referred back to the APC to clarify the meaning of certain words, such as "week."

- discussed a student proposal to enlarge the size of the diplomas.

- at the request of the University Committee, conducted an initial discussion of the number of credits for an undergraduate degree.

1994-1995 Academic Policy Committee

Alice Gillam, English and Comparative Literature
Sally Derrwaldt, College of Letters and Science
Robert Greenstreet, School of Architecture and Urban Planning
Robert Hall, College of Letters and Science
Magda Kandil, Economics
Karen Kapke, Health Restoration
John Leniechek, Registrar's Office
Bob Maqill, Chair, School of Social Welfare
Winston Ring, Business
Lynn Worsham, English and Comparative Literature
Mary Wierenga, Graduate School
Keith Zielinski, student