MOTION:

The Academic Program & Curriculum Committee, the faculty of the Exceptional Education Department and the School of Education recommend changing the name of the Early Childhood: Exceptional Needs (EC:EEN) certification program to Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE).

RATIONALE:

The DPI, the agency that actually grants the certification, has changed the scope of the certification from birth through age 5 to from birth to age 8.