WHEREAS, the faculty and academic staff of the University of Wisconsin System currently do not enjoy, under statute, the right to engage in collective bargaining;

AND WHEREAS that right is enjoyed by other professional employees of the state of Wisconsin;

AND WHEREAS a bill before the most recently adjourned session of the state legislature, known as Senate Bill 132, would have given the faculty and academic staff at the various campuses of the University of Wisconsin System the right to engage in collective bargaining;

AND WHEREAS a recent survey of faculty and academic staff conducted by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Economic Benefits Committee revealed that more than three of every four responding faculty members and more than three of every four responding academic staff members favored passage of Senate Bill 132;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Faculty Senate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee requests that the Senate and General Assembly of the State of Wisconsin enact legislation that will grant to the faculty and academic staff of the campuses of the University of Wisconsin System the right to engage in collective bargaining.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Regents and President of the University of Wisconsin System, to the Office of the Governor of the State of Wisconsin, and to the members of the Senate and General Assembly of the State of Wisconsin.

RATIONALE
It is important that faculty senates throughout the UW System remind the state legislature that one of our basic rights as employees of the state of Wisconsin, the right to self-determination, has been abridged, and that the legislature be requested to correct that injustice.

Associate Professor Lex Renda
Department of History
WHEREAS, the faculty and academic staff of the University of Wisconsin System currently do not enjoy, under statute, the right to engage in collective bargaining;

AND WHEREAS that right is enjoyed by other professional employees of the state of Wisconsin;

AND WHEREAS a bill before the most recently adjourned session of the state legislature, known as Senate Bill 132, would have given the faculty and academic staff at the various campuses of the University of Wisconsin System the right to engage in collective bargaining;

AND WHEREAS a recent survey of faculty and academic staff conducted by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Economic Benefits Committee revealed that more than three of every four responding faculty members and more than three of every four responding academic staff members favored passage of Senate Bill 132;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Faculty Senate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee requests that the Senate and General Assembly of the State of Wisconsin enact legislation that will grant to the faculty and academic staff of the campuses of the University of Wisconsin System the right to engage in collective bargaining.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Regents and President of the University of Wisconsin System, to the Office of the Governor of the State of Wisconsin, and to the members of the Senate and General Assembly of the State of Wisconsin.

RATIONALE
It is important that faculty senates throughout the UW-Milwaukee system remind the state legislature that one of our basic rights as employees of the state of Wisconsin, the right to self-determination, has been abridged, and that the legislature be requested to correct that injustice.

Associate Professor Lex Renda
Department of History