RECOGNITION OF STUDENT LIFE AND INTERESTS COMMITTEE
CONCERNING A RESTATEMENT OF ITS DESCRIPTIVE DEFINITION

STUDENT LIFE AND INTERESTS COMMITTEE

Membership. The committee shall consist of sixteen members. Faculty. There shall be twelve faculty members; the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and the Dean of Student Affairs; plus nine other faculty members, to be appointed by the Provost. Of the nine faculty members, outside the Dean of Student Affairs' Office, three shall be appointed for three-year terms annually. (For 1957-58, three shall be designated for three-year terms, three for two-year terms, and three for one-year terms.) The Provost shall appoint a faculty chairman and an associate chairman annually. Students. There shall be four student members: the president of the University Student Government, the executive editor of the student newspaper, and two students appointed by the president of the University Student Government with the approval of the University Student Legislature for one-year terms.

Subcommittees. The committee shall be divided into six sections or subcommittees covering the whole field of extracurricular activities and interests of students, namely: Finance; Fine Arts; Fraternities, Sororities, and Social Life; Publications; Student Government and Student Organizations; and Student Health and Housing. Each subcommittee shall consist of six members, a faculty chairman who is a member of the SLIC and two faculty members appointed by the Provost (for 1957-58, one to be appointed for a one-year term and one to be appointed for a two-year term, and thereafter each one to be appointed for a two-year term) and three student members to be appointed by the Provost from a list submitted to him by the University Student Government. Each subcommittee shall have a student co-chairman.

Functions. The SLIC has jurisdiction, subject to faculty direction and control, over all extracurricular activities and interests of the students.
