I. The committee approved the following programs in the 1963-64 academic year:

Joseph W. Mathews, Head of Ecumenical Institute, Evanston, Illinois
Subject: "The State Campus and Religion"
Date: September 15, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Philosophy, Sociology
Estimated Attendance: 400
Honorarium $100

Frank Riessman, Psychiatrist, Psychologist
Subject: "The Culturally Deprived Child"
Date: October 9, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Exceptional Education
Estimated Attendance: 300
Honorarium $250

Gabriel Marcel, French Philosopher and Man of Letters
Subjects: Existentialism; The Theatre
Dates: October 10, 11, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Philosophy, Comparative Literature, French & Italian, Music, Theatre
Estimated Attendance: 500; 150
Honorarium $300

Alison Fairlie, Fellow at Girton College, Cambridge University
Subject: "The Prose Poems of Baudelaire"
Date: October 14, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: French & Italian, Comparative Literature
Estimated Attendance: 50
Honorarium $50

Subject: Operation and Application of Lasers
Date: October 28, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Physics, Zoology
Honorarium $50

William S. Lieberman, Curator of Prints and Drawings, Museum of Modern Art
Subject: "Picasso and the Ballet"
Date: November 1, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Art History, Philosophy
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $100

Wilhelm Emrich, Professor of Recent German Literature, University of Cologne
Subject: "Value Judgments in Literary Criticism" (Lectures in German)
Dates: November 4, 5, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: German, Comparative Literature
Estimated Attendance: 100; 50
Honorarium $150

M. Krasner, Professeur titulaire, Clermont-Ferrand University
Subject: "Fermat's Last Theorem"
Date: November 7, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Mathematics, Physics
Estimated Attendance: 50
Honorarium $50

Louise E. Cuyler, Director of Doctoral Studies in Musicology, University of Michigan
Subject: "Maximilian the First as Patron of the Arts"
Date: November 8, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Music, Art, Theatre, History, the Medieval-Renaissance Guild
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $250

David C. Chandler, Professor of Zoology, University of Indiana
Subject: "The Great Lakes as a Natural Resource"
Date: December 4, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Geology, Zoology
Estimated Attendance: 150
Honorarium $120

Nils Nilsson, Head of Slavic Department, University of Stockholm
Subject: "Ibsen and Russia"
Date: December 5, 1963
Honorarium $150
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sponsoring Departments:</th>
<th>Slavic Languages, German, English, Comparative Literature</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Estimated Attendance:</td>
<td>300; 50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

George Polya, Emeritus Professor of Mathematics, Stanford University

Subjects: Problems of Teaching Mathematics; Some Area of Mathematics
Date: December 9, 1963 (two lectures)
Sponsoring Departments: Mathematics, Physics, Philosophy
Estimated Attendance: 75
Honorarium $250

R. B. McQuistan, Staff Physicist, Honeywell Research Center, Hopkins, Minnesota

Subject: "Infrared Detectors—Theory and Practice"
Date: December 11, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Physics, Mathematics
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $50

Horst W. Janson, Chairman, Department of Fine Arts, New York University

Subject: "The Role of Chance in the Creation of Works of Art"
Date: December 13, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Art History, Art, Medieval and Renaissance Guild
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $250

Mulford Q. Sibley, Professor of Political Science, University of Minnesota

Subject: "The Politics of Nonviolence"
Date: December 13, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Sociology, Political Science, Anthropology
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $150

Cyrus R. Gordon, Chairman of Mediterranean Studies, Brandeis University

Subject: "Before the Bible: The Common Background of Greek and Hebrew Civilizations"
Date: January 13, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Hebrew Studies, Classics, Comparative Literature
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $300

Don U. Deere, Professor of Civil Engineering and Geology, University of Illinois

Subject: "The Role of Engineering Geology in Rock Mechanics"
Date: February 26, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Geology, Engineering
Estimated Attendance: 100
Honorarium $125

Lois Barkley Murphy, Research Associate, Department of Child Psychiatry, Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kansas

Subject: "Individual Behavior Patterns of Children"
Date: March 6, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Elementary Education, Exceptional Education
Estimated Attendance: 400
Honorarium $300

H. C. Posthumus Meyjes, Visiting Associate Professor, Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University

Subject: "Policy Making Process in the European Common Market"
Date: March 20, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Political Science, Economics, History, Institute for World Affairs Education
Estimated Attendance: 150
Honorarium $250

R. Byron Bird, Professor of Chemical Engineering, University of Wisconsin - Madison

Subject: "Fluid Dynamics of Polymers and Polymer Solutions"
Date: March 24, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Physics, Chemistry
Estimated Attendance: 50
Expenses $25

Fredson T. Bowers, Chairman, Department of English, University of Virginia

Subject: "Death and Victory: Shakespeare's Tragic Reconciliations"
Date: April 7, 1964
Sponsoring Department: English
Estimated Attendance: 100
Honorarium $250

Fairfield Porter, Artist, Art Critic

Subject: A Phase of Contemporary American Painting
Date: April 10, 1964
Estimated Attendance: 200
Honorarium $300
Sponsoring Departments: Art, Art History, Philosophy
Estimated Attendance: 250

Dan Schreiber, Director, Project on School Drop-Outs, NEA

William Wattenberg, Professor of Educational Psychology, Wayne State University
Subject: "Characteristics of the School Drop-Out"
Date: April 18, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Secondary Education, Social Work
Estimated Attendance: 350

Robert T. Wilce, Associate Professor of Botany, University of Massachusetts, Amherst
Subject: "The High Arctic Marine Algae--A Biological Enigma"
Date: April 27, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Botany, Great Lakes Program
Estimated Attendance: 100

Camilo José Cela, Spanish Novelist
Subject: "Cuatro Figuras del '98"
Date: April 30, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Spanish & Portuguese, Comparative Literature
Estimated Attendance: 150

Ruth Patrick, Curator of Limnology, Philadelphia Academy of Natural Science
Subject: "The Structure of Communities of Plants and Animals in Rivers"
Date: May 6, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Botany, Great Lakes Program
Estimated Attendance: 150

Eva Badura-Skoda, Musicologist, Brittingham Professor, University of Wisconsin
Subject: "Relations Between Literature and Music in the 19th Century"
Date: May 8, 1964
Sponsoring Department: Music
Estimated Attendance: 300

Bruce Morrisette, Professor of Romance Languages, University of Chicago
Subject: "The New Cinema"
Date: May 15, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Comparative Literature, School of Fine Arts
Estimated Attendance: 200

II. The committee approved the following programs for which no funds were requested:

Donald B. Watt, President, Experiment in International Living, Putnam, N.H.
Subject: "Experiment in International Living"
Date: November 18, 1963
Sponsoring Department: Counseling
Estimated Attendance: 100

E. Elath, President of Hebrew University, Jerusalem
Date: November 25, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Hebrew Studies, Philosophy

George W. Mitchell, Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System
Subject: "Monetary Policy and the Balance of Payments"
Date: December 9, 1963
Sponsoring Departments: Economics, Political Science, History, Commerce Division

Paul Goodman, Knapp Professor, Urban Studies, Poet, Novelist
Subject: Reading of his own poems
Date: March 16, 1964
Sponsoring Department: School of Fine Arts

Arnold Maremont, Chicago Industrialist and Patron of the Arts
Subject: "The Population Crisis and Public Welfare"
Date: March 30, 1964
Sponsoring Departments: Sociology, Social Work
Estimated Attendance: 200
III. The following UW-M departments sponsored programs for which funds were provided through the UW-M Lectures Committee, 1963-64:

Anthropology: Co-sponsor December 13
Art: Sponsor April 10; Co-sponsor November 8, December 13
Art History: Sponsor November 1, December 13; Co-sponsor April 10
Botany: Sponsor April 27, May 6
Chemistry: Co-sponsor March 24
Classics: Co-sponsor January 13
Comparative Literature: Sponsor May 15; Co-sponsor October 14, November 4, December 5, December 13, April 30
Economics: Co-sponsor March 20
Elementary Education: Sponsor October 9, March 6
Division of Engineering: Co-sponsor February 26
English: Sponsor April 7; Co-sponsor December 5
Exceptional Education: Co-sponsor March 6
French: Sponsor October 14
Geology: Sponsor December 4, February 26
German: Sponsor November 4; Co-sponsor December 5
Great Lakes Program: Co-sponsor April 27, May 6
Hebrew Studies: Sponsor January 13
History: Co-sponsor November 8, March 20
Institute for World Affairs Education: Co-sponsor March 20
Mathematics: Sponsor November 7, December 9; Co-sponsor December 11
Medieval-Renaissance Guild: Co-sponsor November 8, December 13
Music: Sponsor November 8, May 8
Philosophy: Sponsor September 15, October 10; Co-sponsor November 1, December 9, April 10
Physics: Sponsor October 28, December 11, March 24; Co-sponsor November 7, December 9
Political Science: Sponsor March 20; Co-sponsor December 13
School of Fine Arts: Co-sponsor May 15
School of Social Work: Co-sponsor April 18
Secondary Education: Sponsor April 18; Co-sponsor October 9
Slavic Languages: Sponsor December 5
Sociology: Sponsor December 13; Co-sponsor September 15
Spanish & Portuguese: Sponsor April 30
Theatre: Co-sponsor November 8
Zoology: Co-sponsor October 28, December 4

LECTURES COMMITTEE

R. Burkert       E. Kerr, Chairman
W. Christman     D. Leeseberg
R. Hart          W. Matson
M. Katz