5.13 Calculating the Probationary Periods

(Document 2656, 3/12/09; UWM Administration approval, 4/6/09)

(1) Previous full-time service in other accredited colleges or universities in a rank equivalent to assistant professor or above at the University, or previous full-time teaching service as a member of the academic staff at this University, is taken into account in computing a person's probationary service at the University, so that the probationary period shall not exceed seven (7) years in all. Provided that if a person receives a probationary appointment after service of more than three (3) years in one or more institutions, a person's probationary status at the University may extend for as long as four (4) years, even though the total probationary period is thereby extended beyond the normal maximum of seven (7) years. In the case of less than full-time appointments, the provisions of 5.13(3) apply. Prior probationary service must be established in writing at the time a faculty appointment is offered.

(Document 1090, 4/20/78, 5/11/78, 11/16/78; UWM Administration approval, 11/22/78; Regent approval, 6/6/80)

5.13 Calculating the probationary period

(Document 2656, 3/12/09; UWM Administration approval, 4/6/09)

(1) Previous full time service in other accredited colleges or universities in a rank equivalent to assistant professor or above or previous full-time teaching service as a member of the academic staff at this University, is taken into account in computing a person’s probationary service at this University, so that the probationary period shall not exceed seven (7) years in all. If a person receives a probationary appointment after service of more than three (3) years in one or more institutions, a person’s probationary status at this University may extend for as long as four (4) years, even though the total probationary period is thereby extended beyond the normal maximum of seven (7) years. In the case of less than full-time appointments, the provisions of 5.13(3) apply. Prior probationary service must be established at the time a faculty appointment is offered.

RATIONALE

Editorial changes to clarify language.