Charter: Functions/ Responsibilities:

A2.5 Faculty Ethics Advisory Committee

(1) Membership. The Committee shall be comprised of three elected faculty. To be eligible for election, a faculty member must have served on the Codification Committee, a Divisional Executive Committee, or the University Committee.

(2). Functions.
   a) Recommends to the Faculty Senate those policies and procedures necessary to implement the Code of Ethics (UWS 8);
   b) Provides consultation and advice on the application of UWS 8 to any member of the faculty. In accordance with UWS 8.035, the committee’s deliberations and actions upon request for consultation or advice shall be in meetings not open to the public. Records obtained in connection with requests for consultation or advice shall be considered confidential university information. However, summaries of advice provided by the committee, which do not disclose the identities of persons requesting such advice, shall be made public in an annual report.

(Document 1526, 12/18/86; UWM Administration approval, 1/2/87)

Meetings:

The Faculty Ethics Advisory Committee met on September 21, 2010 to review the committee’s charge and elect a chair (Dimitroff).

There being no business, the Committee did not meet again during the 2010-2011 academic year.

Member Dietmar Wolfram was replaced by Ed Mabry when Wolfram became Interim Dean, SOIS.
