Memorial Resolution for Emeritus Professor Delia G. Ovitz

Because of her significant contributions through the years to the development of the College on this campus, it is particularly fitting that we record our respect and admiration for Professor Emeritus Delia G. Ovitz, who died in Milwaukee on May 7, 1964. Professor Ovitz was head librarian at the Milwaukee State Teachers College and its predecessor, the Milwaukee Normal School, from 1901 to 1944.

Miss Ovitz, who was born in Mifflin, Iowa County, Wisconsin, was graduated from the Milwaukee Normal in 1901 and later received a bachelor of science degree from the University of Chicago. Soon after her graduation from the Normal, Miss Ovitz assumed the responsibilities of librarian. In spite of limitations of space, equipment, and financial support, Miss Ovitz succeeded in building a staff that exhibited a splendid spirit of service and cooperation. She exhibited fine taste and scholarly judgement in developing the resources of the library tenfold during her tenure. Early in her career she organized courses in library reference work and established a minor in Library Science at the College. Because of her efficient administration of the library, a Carnegie Grant was awarded to the College in 1938.

Through writing and membership on national committees Miss Ovitz made further contributions to the profession. She prepared a library handbook that ran through several editions as well as a bulletin entitled An Information File in Every Library, and was also the author of several articles in such periodicals as American School, Public Libraries, and the N.E.A. Journal. She served on several state and national committees and was chairman of the Library Committee of the N.E.A. and of the National Council of Teachers of English.

The devotion of Miss Ovitz to the College, her interest in students, and her remarkable memory of them, led her to take an intense interest in the Alumni Association and to supervise the preparation of the first alumni directory in 1917 and its revision in 1937. During her last years as librarian Miss Ovitz devoted considerable time and thought to plans for a new library. Unfortunately, funds were not appropriated for the construction of a new building until after she had retired.

Following her retirement Miss Ovitz gave further evidence of her administrative ability by managing an exclusive women's apparel shop in Aberdeen, South Dakota.

The highly cultivated aesthetic sense of Miss Ovitz found expression in her love for art, for beautiful books, and for antiques. She had one of the finest collections of antique glass in Milwaukee, and her home was furnished with beautiful antique furniture.

A lady of culture and poise, Miss Ovitz exerted a profound influence on the life of the College. Possessed of courage, she was a constructive force in the determination of College policy; possessed of love for her fellow men, she aided students and colleagues in numerous ways.

To the brother and sister of Miss Ovitz the members of this faculty extend their sympathy and their appreciation for her life and work.
