Annual Report of the Public Relations Committee, 1965-66

The Public Relations Committee met several times in 1965-66.

It continued to review the operations and activities of administrative units directly charged with responsibilities in the area of university relations.

The Committee notes that changes in the organization and personnel in public relations activities have been made during the year, and it is anticipated that additional changes will be made in the ensuing months. With the completion of the reorganization measures, the Committee will be able to assess its functions within UWM public relations.
