L & S SCHOLASTIC STANDING AND APPEALS COMMITTEE

At its meeting March 4, 1969, the L & S Faculty adopted the following recommendation of the Scholastic Standing and Appeals Committee:

If the instructor does not report a grade for a student, the Registrar will record a symbol, such as X. The Registrar shall not record any grades not reported by the instructor. An instructor must turn in a grade of "F" for a student who has attended at least the first half of a course and who has been doing failing work.
