MEMORIAL RESOLUTION FOR PROFESSOR ROBERT M. FROGGE

On January 3, 1969, the School of Education and university community were stunned by the announcement of the untimely death of Professor Robert M. Frogge of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

Dr. Frogge was born in Elwood, Nebraska, in 1932 and spent his early years in that community. He received his B.S., Ed. M., and Ed. D. degrees from the University of Nebraska.

After having taught social studies in secondary schools of Nebraska and Iowa, he served as supervisor of student teaching and instructor in the Department of Secondary Education at the University of Nebraska.

Bob came to UWM in 1965 as Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction and immediately impressed his colleagues and his students with his depth of knowledge, deep human concern, and warm humor. His reputation as a scholar and teacher in his field of social studies education was already appreciated not only in this community but among his colleagues nationally at the time of his death.

Bob would not want a flowery, lengthy eulogy for he was a man of directness and simplicity.

Perhaps the most direct and meaningful statement we can make about him is that we have lost a great and very dear friend.
