COMMITTEE NAME: Human Rights Committee

MEMBERSHIP: Three elected faculty members and three faculty members appointed by the Chancellor, and one representative of the classified service and an academic Dean appointed annually by the Chancellor. The Director of the Institute of Human Relations, the Director of Personnel and a designated representative of the Chancellor responsible for Human Rights matters are members ex-officio.

Two students with full voting rights shall be appointed annually by the President of Student Government; if he has not appointed them by September 1, they shall be appointed by the Dean of Student Affairs.

FUNCTIONS: To develop and implement the principle of eliminating all forms of discrimination based on race, creed, color, religion, sex or national origin. In working toward elimination of discrimination against members of the University community, the committee shall consider alleged violations of their human rights and report its findings to the University Administration. The Committee serves as an advisory body to the Administration concerning administrative policies related to human rights of members of the University community and maintains liaison with other university committees on these issues. Where appropriate, the committee shall make policy recommendations to the UWM faculty or its Senate.

Specifically, the Committee proposes and advises concerning an affirmative action program to assure equal employment opportunities for all, and establish programs to increase the competence of those persons whose lack of skill results from past or present discrimination, and encourage active recruitment of minority group members for posts within the University community.
