School of Education Request to Extend Voting Rights

Document 760 was withdrawn from the Faculty Senate meeting of February 6, 1973 in order to clarify the motion. In accord with the requirements of Chapter 32.02 (2), the School of Education submits the revised motion to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Faculty Senate.

Motion:

That voting privileges in the School of Education be extended to include full-time instructors, lecturers, and specialists who have teaching responsibilities and department membership.*

* It is understood that membership in departments by persons in these three ranks is determined annually by appropriate Executive Committee action in each department.

Chapter 32.02 (2)

Subject to the approval of the University Faculty-Milwaukee, the faculty of each college or school may define as voting members of its faculty other categories of full-time members of its academic staff, whose appointments may not otherwise designate University Faculty Status, such definition not to imply University Faculty Status as defined in 31.01 (1).

Document 760 was editorially reviewed by the Codification Committee and found to adhere to faculty legislation.
School of Education Request to Extend Voting Rights

In accord with the requirements of Chapter 32.02 (2), the School of Education submits the following motion to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Faculty Senate:

Motion

The faculty of the School of Education is defined as including the following additional categories of full-time academic staff appointments in the School: instructors, lecturers, and specialists with teaching responsibilities in departments.

Chapter 32.02 (2)

Subject to the approval of the University Faculty-Milwaukee, the faculty of each college or school may define as voting members of its faculty other categories of full-time members of its academic staff, whose appointments may not otherwise designate University Faculty status, such definition not to imply University Faculty status as defined in 31.01 (1).

Document 760 was editorially reviewed by the Codification Committee January 23, 1973.