Recommendation of the Codification Committee to amend Chapter 6., Section 6.26, Faculty Welfare Committee.

Amendment to Chapter 6. Faculty Committees
Section 6.26 Faculty Welfare Committee

(New) 6.26 Economic Benefits Committee

(A) Membership Seven faculty members. Six elected at large by the faculty, at least two of whom shall be non-tenured faculty; the chairman of the University Committee, ex-officio.

Functions

(B) To advise faculty on all matters of faculty welfare, including, but not limited to salary, sick leave, group insurance, and retirement. To prepare and disseminate information on the economic status and needs of the faculty, including comparative data from other universities and other professional fields, as deemed necessary. In conjunction with the University Committee, to represent the faculty in discussions, hearings, and other appropriate activities, including the exchange of information on faculty economic benefits with the Administration, Regents, Governor, and members of the Legislature, and the formulation of recommendations for faculty action.

(Old) 6.26 Faculty Welfare Committee

(A) Membership Six elected faculty members. The representatives of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee who are on the system-wide Fringe Benefits Committee are also voting members of the Faculty Welfare Committee. The Nominations Committee is requested to nominate two faculty members who have been at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee less than ten years.

(B) Functions To advise the Faculty on such matters as pertain to sick leave, group insurance, retirement, and all other matters of faculty welfare. On its own initiative, or at the request of the University Committee, to undertake studies and to make recommendations for faculty consideration of compensation, salary, and fringe benefits. To maintain liaison with the University Committee, the Faculty Association, and other University groups concerned with these matters.

Codification Committee

R. Dittman, Chairman
W. Hagen
E. Kunkle
O. Myers
E. Partridge
H. Weil
B. Potterveld, ex-officio
T. McLaughlin, Consultant