Wisconsin is home to more than 540 LEED registered and certified projects, equaling 61 million gross square feet of green building space. This includes 175 organizations headquartered in Wisconsin that are Wisconsin Green Building Alliance (WGBA) and U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC) members. Our state’s green building industry employs more than 2 million people and grosses more than $15 billion in annual revenue.