The Direct Sunlight Hour Potential analysis was quantified by using 2010 'First Return', 'Last Return' and 'Bare Earth' LiDAR data. Elevation from this data was used to help predict the shadows created by tall objects. The time range for analysis was between sunrise to sunset. Results show the summation for every day during the analysis range listed above (May - Oct).