

MICHAEL W. TWITTY

is a culinary and cultural historian and Judaic Studies teacher whose interests include food culture, food history, Jewish cultural issues, African American history, and cultural politics. His book, The Cooking Gene: A Journey Through African American Culinary History in the Old South, is the 2018 winner of two James Beard Awards: for Best Food Writing and Book of the Year. His second book, Kosher Soul, is scheduled for publication in 2019.

KYLE CHEREK is a culinary historian, food essayist, and host of the Emmy Award-winning show Wisconsin Foodie on PBS. For over a decade, he has explored where our food comes from and how it shapes who we are.

The 2019 Colors of Jewishness events are made possible by the generous support of Bader Philanthropies

The Sam and Helen Stahl

CENTER FOR JEWISH STUDIES

The Colors of Jewishness

Monday, February 18, 6PM BOOK TALK

Reservations required: 414-286-3011

Mitchell Street Library • 906 W. Historic Mitchell Street

Tuesday, February 19, 4PM

PANEL DISCUSSION WITH Michael W. Twitty

Moderated by Wisconsin Foodie host Kyle Cherek

Panelists: Shahanna McKinney Baldon, Portia Cobb, and Jennifer Jordan

UWM Golda Meir Library, 4th Floor • 2311 E. Hartford Avenue

Both events are free and open to the public.

Books will be available for purchase from Boswell Book Company, and the author will be available to sign copies.

CO-SPONSORS

COMMUNITY: The Milwaukee Public Library, Boswell Book Company
UWM: Center for 21st Century Studies, Cultures & Communities and Religious Studies Programs, Departments of Anthropology and History, and the UWM Libraries

