Course Description and Objectives
Welcome to Latin@ Studies 101: Introduction to Latin@ Studies! In this course we will examine the varying definitions, experiences, and contributions, historical and contemporary, of Latin@s in the United States, be they of Mexican, Caribbean, or Latin American descent. We will explore the intersections of identity, place, history, and social justice activism to:

- Examine the ways that Latin@s have been defined in the United States, as well as the ways they have been perceived and accepted, rejected, and/or simply quietly tolerated by mainstream U.S. society
- Explore the varied Latin@ experience in the United States, including self-identification; family and community structure and maintenance; the quest for upward social mobility; the quest for social and economic justice; and contributions to the host society, culture, and economy
- Employ the terms, concepts, and methods required in Latin@ Studies through the following frameworks: economic, political, historical, racial, class, familial, gender, immigration and immigrant residence status, educational, artistic, and literary
- Critically analyze and discuss sources; share findings; debate the strengths and weaknesses of points raised in scholarly sources and the merits and shortcomings of policies and practices (current and historical); express our views clearly and concisely in carefully developed written form

Required Readings
All readings are posted to our course D2L under the Content tab

Highly Recommended

Class Format
This class is structured to incorporate a mix of: lecture; reading analysis and class discussion; film viewing, analysis, and discussion; and student presentations. Your active participation is essential to maintaining an engaging, dynamic classroom environment and to maximizing the quantity and quality of your and your colleagues’ learning. Regular attendance and engagement are indispensable. Active participation will earn you up to 3% extra credit toward your overall grade.

There will be twelve written reading responses and one topics & source list assignment (for your papers), which together will comprise 20% of your overall grade. Written responses must be typed/word processed and turned in at the end of class on the day the reading is discussed. Refer to the course schedule to maintain your reading and written response work. Each reading and the questions for your written responses can be found in the class day prior to the day due (for example, reading and response due for Tuesday, Jan. 29th, can be found in the schedule for the previous Thursday, Jan. 24th).

There will be no midterm exam; instead content knowledge will be assessed with four discreet brief quizzes and a final exam. The final exam will also be discreet except for one essay question that asks you to consider a specific theme over the course of the semester. You will receive an exam study guide well ahead of time, which will include potential essay questions as they will appear on the exam. We will also take time in class for review in preparation for the exam.

Additionally, you will write two short papers that will require some research: 1) a 4-pg. reflective/research paper that allows you to consider some aspect of your own experience related to a specific topic of course in light of scholarship. Or, you may simply choose a topic of interest to you to research more thoroughly than covered in class; and (2) a 2-3 pg. paper exploring an example of Latinx experience and/or activism in historical perspective. You might interview an older relative, neighbor, or friend whose personal experience you can place in historical perspective. You might research a Latinx-specific agency or organization and write about its mission, the reasons why the agency and its work are needed, and the agency’s historic and/or contemporary achievements. You might consider a development or historical event of interest to you that we’ve covered in class in greater depth. Your findings for both papers will be presented in class. We will receive research instruction with an information technology specialist at Golda Meir Library to assist with these projects.

My late policy for papers is down 1/3 grade per calendar day assignment is late. For example, one day late on an A paper (95%) would result in a grade of A- (92%); two days late would result in a grade of B+(89%). Save and backup your work (in more than one place) frequently.
“My computer crashed” is not an acceptable excuse for not having your paper ready to turn in on the day it is due.

Electronic Devices
The use of laptops in lecture and class discussion is not allowed except by special arrangement. The same goes for other electronic devices. Please turn off and put away your phones before class.

Grade Breakdown
- Participation: Extra Credit up to 3%
- Written Responses: 20%
- Quizzes (4): 20%
- Reflective/Research Project: 20%
- Historical Perspective Project: 15%
- Final Exam: 25%

Grade Guide
All work will be graded on an A-F scale. Work of “A” and “A-” quality demonstrates full mastery of the facts and interpretations found in the readings, lectures, and class discussion plus your analysis—your assessment and evaluation. Work in the “B” range demonstrates a sound understanding of the readings and lectures but fails to thoroughly analyze that material. Work in the “C” range demonstrates a working knowledge of the material and a minimum of interpretation. Work failing to reach this minimal level will receive a “D” or “F.”

The grade scale is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>94-100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>90-93%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>87-89%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>84-86%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-</td>
<td>80-83%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C+</td>
<td>77-79%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>74-76%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C-</td>
<td>70-73%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D+</td>
<td>67-79%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>64-66%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D-</td>
<td>60-63%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Anything below 60% is a failing grade.

Academic Honesty
By enrolling in this course, each student assumes the responsibilities of an active participant in UW-Milwaukee’s community of scholars in which everyone’s academic work and behavior are held to the highest academic integrity standards. Academic misconduct compromises the integrity of the university. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. This includes but is not limited to failure on the assignment/course, disciplinary probation, or suspension. For more on UWM Academic Misconduct policy, please see: http://uwm.edu/academicaffairs/facultystaff/policies/academic-misconduct/

I encourage you to work with your colleagues to get the most out of this course. Be careful, however, not to plagiarize. When you use someone else’s ideas or language, you must cite her/him using appropriate citations. When you quote a source directly, you must use quotes, attribute that quote, and provide full publishing information. When summarizing or paraphrasing, your source must also be fully cited. When in doubt, see me or refer to the Writing Center for... guidance. For more information visit “Avoiding Plagiarism” at Purdue University’s Online Writing Lab (OWL): https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/01/
